- You will receive your funds either by direct deposit or a check will be mailed to the current mailing address on file. If you are already set up for direct deposit from the college and/or your mailing address is current and correct in SIS, then no additional action is required.

To review your refund options visit <https://vwcc.afford.com/>. If it is your first time setting up direct deposit, you will need to create an account by using the 'Resend Registration Email' using your school email account (do not use your personal email).

To check the mailing address the college has on file log into your MYVWCC account and click the SIS (Student Information System) tile. Then go to the 'Student Center' and scroll to the bottom of the page to review and edit your mailing address.

This information represents the most recent quarterly information as of February 1st, 2021.

*Since the initial reporting 7 checks were returned as uncashed and expired. VWCC had a total reported eligible population of 1,866 students reported on archived reports but subsequently was only able to award 1,859 students.
